CREATING WARMTH

FALL YOGA & AYURVEDA
FOR THE VATA SEASON

October 11, 2024 @ 2-3:30
at Hope House Aurora with Gwendolyn & Nicki

According to yoga and Ayurveda, Fall is the season of the vata dosha.

This season brings cold, dry, and dark qualities that can leave us feeling uninspired and depleted.

In this workshop, we'll delve into the wisdom of Ayurveda and yoga to help you stay balanced and nourished during this time.

Together we will explore daily rituals, seasonal essential oils, dietary tweaks and yoga practices designed to counter the effects of the colder months.

Discover how balancing vata can lead to greater warmth, stability, and wellbeing throughout the cooler months.
