

Hospice King-Aurora announced as WINNER of the

Voluntary Sector Reporting Awards 2012

Hospice King (Operating as Hospice King-Aurora)

For the second year in a row, Hospice King-Aurora (HKA) is the proud recipient of the VSRA, an award created by the CA-Queen's Centre for Governance (a partnership between the

Stephen Forsey (HKA Board Member), Sheila Darnowski (Executive Director) & Douglas Kelly (Publisher at the National Post Newspaper)

Queen's School of Business & the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Ontario) and sponsored by PriceWaterhouseCoopers & The National Post. This financial award is given to charities whose annual reports demonstrate the highest level of accountability and transparency, and communicate effectively with beneficiaries, donors & stakeholders.

The award was presented at a luncheon on February 15, 2013. Hospice King-Aurora has been an award recipient for two years and a finalist for three years.

"We announced five winners and two honorable mentions out of 14 finalists and over 100 nominations from charities all across Ontario. This is a sign that Ontario's charity sector is recognizing the importance of accountability and reporting. We're proud of the role the VSRA, now in their fifth year, has played in making a difference on this important issue,"
Steve Salterio, Director of the CA-Queen's Centre for Governance.
